Spirit Day K-12: Twins, Triplets and Tacky Tourists

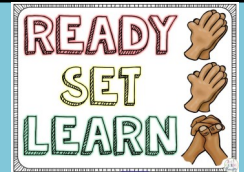

Show your school spirit tomorrow, Thursday April 11! Find a friend or two and dress in crazy matching outfits or raid the dress-up box or your parent's closet to find the most ridiculous tourist attire!

Ready, Set, Learn- Wednesday April 17th

HCS is pleased to host this wonderful government sponsored literacy event each year for children entering Kindergarten the following calendar year.

This event is designed to promote school readiness and to offer valuable information to caregivers on how to encourage early learning for their child. This is also an opportunity to welcome new families into our midst for a bright morning of fun here at HCS!

Report Card Envelopes

Just a friendly reminder to have your child return his/her report card envelope to be re-used in June. Thank you!

GrandFolks Day is coming up in May!
Students will be receiving invitations to pass out soon. Check out the fabulous artwork the Grade 1s created. Could this be what these young students will look like when they are GrandFolks one day too?
